GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

I. Application, contracting, designation of the area

1. The Customer is notifying about its intent to exhibit at ÖKOINDUSTRIA 2013 by sending the signed Exhibitor Contract back to the Organiser (Association of Environmental Enterprises, H-1024 Budapest, Keleti Károly u. 11/A, Hungary, hereinafter referred to as the Organiser).
2. The Organiser will officially confirm that the contract has taken effect by returning one copy of it.
3. The Customer acknowledges that the Organiser will hire Sub-contractors to conclude the contract.
4. The Organiser notifies the Customer about the emplacement and also sends the site layout plan by e-mail. The Customer can express disapproval in writing within two business-days. In case there is no disapproval, the emplacement will be considered as approved.

II. Terms of payment, occupation of the site

1. The Organiser along with the signed Exhibitor Contract will send a prepayment request (1) to the Customer that contains the Registration fee.
2. In case of cancellation the registration fee will not be paid back.
3. The Organiser's prepayment request will also contain the early bird space fee until the end of early bird date. (After receiving the deposit, the Contractor will send an advance invoice.)
4. The Contractor will send a prepayment request (2) based on the ordered services after 1 July, 2013. After receiving the deposit, the Contractor will send an advance invoice to the Customer. After the event the Contractor will send a final invoice to the Customer that contains the fees of the onsite ordered services. The date of delivery is 25 September 2013. The payment date of the final invoice is 8 bank days.
5. The exhibition area can only be taken into possession after paying the exhibition fee.
6. The Customer takes full responsibility for any damage caused by itself and its subcontractors. From the construction to the dismantling, the Customer is obliged to have a Third Party Insurance that is ordered on the Exhibition Contract.

III. Responsibilities of the Customer

1. The Customer takes care of equipping the booth the day before the exhibition and removing the remaining items after the closure of the exhibition.
2. The Customer complies with the general rules of the exhibition and takes full responsibility in case of violating them.
3. The Customer orders all on-site services only from the Organiser and the Customer confirms the fulfilment with its signature.
4. The Customer reports its eventual needs for any music facilities or announcements (must be lower than 80 dBA) to the Organiser for approval 30 days prior to the opening of the exhibition at the latest. The approval is subject to the consent of the neighbouring stands!
5. The Customer distributes its leaflets, brochures exclusively on its own stand.

IV. Cancellation, claims, legal disputes

1. Should the Customer withdraw its confirmed participation after 1 July, 2013, but the opening of the exhibition is later than 30 days, net 50% penalty of the exhibition fee must be paid; within 30 days before the exhibition 100% penalty of the exhibition fee must be paid. The withdrawal is valid from the date when the official withdrawal document arrives in written form to the Organiser.
2. If the Customer does not pay the exhibition fee by the due date, the Organiser will send a written notification requesting the Customer to do so. If the payment still does not take place within 5 business-days, then the Organiser is entitled to terminate the contract unilaterally without any obligations.
3. If the Customer does not occupy its exhibition area within 3 hours before the opening of the exhibition, the Organiser has the right to rent it to another exhibitor.
4. The Customer has to submit its written claims to the Organiser regarding the booth until the closure of the exhibition, regarding the invoices until the deadline of the payment.
5. In case of vis major, the Organiser does not assume any responsibility.
6. In case of legal disputes the parties will try to find mutual agreement. Should they fail to do so, they refer to the decision of the court of authority and competence of the Court of Budapest.

The modification of the present contract can only take place in written form, so neither of the contracting parties can plead any oral modifications legally. The present contract takes effect on the day of signing and loses effect after its contents have been accomplished by the contracting parties.
